SING FOR A CAUSE

In Memory of Lawson Walker

Carmina Burana

Saturday, March 21 @ 7:30pm
Walnut Hills High School • 3250 Victory Parkway

_Sing for a Cause_ is an exciting Cincinnati-area benefit concert sponsored annually by the Taylor High School and Walnut Hills High School choral programs. _All profits from ticket sales, sponsorships, and donations go directly toward the fight against Alzheimer’s disease._ This year’s concert will be in memory of Lawson Walker, who lost his battle with Alzheimer’s Disease in 2013.

On _Saturday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m._ the Taylor Senior Choir, Walnut Hills Senior Ensemble, and Winton Woods Varsity Ensemble will join forces for a performance of _Carl Orff’s Carmina Burana_. The concert will take place in the Walnut Hills High School Auditorium and all proceeds will be donated to the Alzheimer’s Association of Cincinnati.

Since its inception in 2011, _Sing for a Cause_ has raised over _$22,000_, and with your sponsorship of any amount, this year we can reach new heights. Every dollar will contribute to a happier and healthier Cincinnati.

_Tickets may be purchased online_ at www.seatyourself.biz _or at the door._ The Alzheimer’s Association of Cincinnati greatly appreciates any amount you are able to give. Together we can make a difference. Your support will enable us to improve lives as we _Sing for a Cause._
