March 24, 2015

1. Welcome and introductions (President, Beth Ewing).
2. Treasurer, Jen Rodes, presented the February, 2015 Financial Report. She noted that the Legacy of Excellence Campaign surpassed its fundraising goal, though those numbers will not be reflected until the March financial report is complete. Motion to accept the February Financial Report by Raniele Jago, Second by Tim Bonfield. All voted in favor. Motion carried.
3. Minutes from the February 24, 2015 Association meeting were circulated for review. Motion to approve the minutes by Jen Rodes, Second by Angela Robinson. All voted in favor. Motion carried.
4. Committee Updates:
 - LUDI Festival – President, Beth Ewing reported that Ludi met its fundraising goal.
 - WalnutFest—President, Beth Ewing reported that WalnutFest was a great success with record attendance of 500+ supporters.
 - After Prom—President Beth Ewing reported that planning is well underway for the event which is scheduled for April 11-12. Juniors and Seniors will be entertained after the dance by several bands, a hypnotist, the pool will be open, and there will be a multitude of prizes up for grabs. The committee is looking for volunteers to help with the event.
5. College Credit Plus Program Panel Discussion Principal, Jeff Brokamp, introduced the panel of representatives from UC's "uptown" campus, UC's Blue Ash campus, Cincinnati State, Miami University's Oxford campus, and Chatfield College. The panel spoke about each of their institutions' involvement in the Ohio Department of Education program which enables Ohio high school students to earn college credit at their schools (some on-line, some at the schools' campuses). The program is free for students and can really help reduce to cost of a college education for those who qualify to participate. The panel fielded a number of questions from the Association membership and made information regarding their individual programs available to interested attendees.
6. Any questions? None were raised.
